

Waypoint 14: Trarbach town hall

Built in neo-classicism in 1843/1844.

When was the big fire, in which the facade was neoclassicism has been preserved?

0 0 0 0
l

Waypoint 15: Trarbach Protestant Church

The location of the church high above the town and the name "Auf Kästel" (lat. castellum) suggest a Roman predecessor building. The

The sacred building, which has undergone various extensions over the centuries, was first built in 1330.

mentioned. The church was heavily damaged in the fire. Follow the steps to the entrance door. Who likes can count them and write the result in the log.

What is the date in the top left corner above the door?

0 0 0 0
j

Waypoint 16: In the „Kittchen“

The former prison of Trarbach.

How many green letters has the saying on the Building?

0 Letter
a

Please note, only one number is inserted per box and underscore

Now enter the numbers of the matching letter:

N _ _ _ _ o _ _ _ . _ _ _ _
a b c d e f g

E _ _ _ _ _ o _ _ _ . _ _ _ _
h i j k l m n o

Now you can enter the coordinates into the GPS device. You will then get the location of the Geocaches are displayed. The coordinates can be entered in Google Maps in the same way.

Once you have arrived at this point, you go to the Search for the "treasure". It lies a few meters next to (above) the path. However, since recently also a trail there. Please be CAUTION when lifting.

Here you can write your name in the logbook and also take a little something with you as a reward. If there are any plastic chips / coins in the box, please leave them lying round, unless you know which the existence of these coins. They are "Coins" from other geocachers. Please also the box again in the same place, so that the

the next "treasure hunter" will still enjoy it. If there is still some time left, you should follow the path and enjoy the magnificent view.

Have fun and good luck!

All waypoints are described in detail in the brochure Kulturroute TrabenTrarbach. These are available at the tourist information office.

GEOCACHE TRABEN-TRARBACH

Waypoint 1: Old train station

The former station building, built in 1904, whose façade shows historical Moselle half-timbered reminiscences, serves today as a tourist information center.

What is the first name of Mr. Langguth, who donated the figure in 2003?

How many letters does his first name have?

Add up the two digits of the result:

$$\text{O} + \text{O} = \underline{\quad}$$

o

Waypoint 2: Former power station

Industrial architecture built in brick in 1887. The from 1889, the former power station supplied the City with the first completely electric street lighting in Germany.

What was the generator output of the coal-fired power plant?

$$\text{O} - \text{O} = \underline{\quad}$$

i

Waypoint 3: Former town hall in Traben

The impressive, in the years 1898-1899 - five years before the unification to a double city - buildings erected in the style of historicism in neo-renaissance forms represents the economic upswing and the self-confidence of the citizens of Traben to Turn of the century.

What is the house number of the building?

$$\text{O} - \text{O} = \underline{\quad}$$

k

Then walk left or right past the building to the next waypoint.

Waypoint 4: Hotel Moselschlösschen

The historic property comprises 3 building

areas: half-timbered house, villa and „Schlößchengasse“, which are Fountain courtyard and small park connected with each other are.

When was the building constructed?

$$\text{O} \text{ O} \text{ O} \text{ O}$$

g

Waypoint 5: Private Villa Haus Nollen/ Villa Breucker

Cubic nested art nouveau building by architect Prof. Möhring for the wine dealer Dr. Gustaf Breucker built. private villa.

When was the villa built?

$$\text{O} \text{ O} \text{ O} \text{ O}$$

h

Waypoint 6: Romanticism Art Nouveau Hotel Bellevue

The 1903 by Möhring in art nouveau style built hotel also remained largely unchanged on the inside. A special feature is the oriel in the form of a champagne ash. The year marks on the facade remind us of past flood catastrophes. Look for the following slogan on the building and complete it:

„Abstinente armer _____, zum Spott gemeizelt in den Turm, weil du verschmähest Gottes Gaben, woran sich brave Menschen laben“.

How many letters does the missing word have?

$$\text{O} \text{ Letters}$$

f

Waypoint 7: Commander's house

A little further along the Moselle, you will come across the commandant's house. The baroque building, where originally the commander of the fortress "Mont Royal" was built after 1698 using original architectural elements from the mountain plateau to the banks of the Mosel.

What is the address of the building (forestry office)?

$$\text{Calculate: } \text{O} + \text{O} = \underline{\quad}$$

c

Waypoint 8: Bridge toll

Please go up the stairs here and cross the bridge go. At the beginning of the bridge there is a sign with the bridge tariff: Moselle Bridge Traben-Trarbach Payment is due:

How much was the bridge tariff for one person including load capacity?

$$\text{Calculate: } \text{O} - 3 = \underline{\quad}$$

m

Waypoint 9: Lorettahaus and Imperial Post Office

he building ensemble was built in the years 1906-1908 at the Traben bridgehead in the spirit of the Historicism. The rich decoration comes from by the local sculptor Bernhard Wendhut.

What was the name of the architect of this building? How many letters does his surname consist of?

Dipl. Ing. _____

$$\text{O}$$

d

Greeting Point

Here you can greet people who are currently using the WebCam on www.traben-trarbach.de. Thus: Mobile phone out and call a friend and waves.

Waypoint 11: Bridge gate

Completed in 1899, the landmark of the twin city was - in conjunction with the iron arch bridge - the first building contract for the Berlin Art Nouveau architect Bruno Möhring in Traben-Trarbach.

When was it rebuilt?

$$\text{O} \text{ O} \text{ O} \text{ O}$$

e

Waypoint 12: Mittelmosel Museum in the Baroque Villa Böcking

Already Goethe, Friedrich-Wilhelm IV. and the French poet Apollinaire were guests in the stately Baroque villa of the merchant family Böcking, in which is today a jewel among the museums of the Moselle region. In the over 20 showrooms are valuable furniture and art paintings from three centuries as well as an extensive collection on the history of the town of Traben-Trarbach. If you still have some time, you should visit the Museum to pay a visit.

When did Goethe stay in this house?

$$\text{November: } \text{O} \text{ O} \text{ O} \text{ O}$$

e

Waypoint 13: Old city tower

Of the original seven towers of the city fortifications, only two have survived the ages. Besides the former halfway fortified tower in Grabenstraße is now served by the elaborately restored "Old City Tower". today as an observation tower. Special attraction is the for the city anniversary in 2004, the carillon was installed there, which was extended by five bells in 2008.

How many bells does the carillon have?

$$\text{O} \text{ O} \text{ Bells (Tip: Counting)}$$

e